“Being in a Business That Caters To Senior Housing and How to Be a Champion in Our Industry”

Theresa comes from a background in Nursing and Facility Administration. She is a proven leader, helping private owners of Assisted Living Facilities in both ongoing business and through the start-up and construction process.

In 2012 Theresa created West Central Solutions, Inc. for the purpose of helping seniors and their families and caregivers find the best assisted living facilities to meet their current and long-term needs.
